Chinese Christian brothren and sisters of the London Mission, as well as some foreign Mission's Chinese chapel (the To Tesi Chapel) to bid farewell to the Rev. Dr and Mrs Chalmers, who will go home on a wellearned furlough, via Yokohama and Cauada by the C. P. R. Co.'s mail steamer Empress of India on Wednesday. The paster and several elders of the oburch spoke on their behalf, expressing the deep regret they all felt at the departure of Dr and Mrs Chalmers and hoping that they will enjoy a bon wonage. and come back again next year hale and hearty. Three pieces of poetry and a long complimentary address written by the elders in high sounding Chicese literary style and. in general terms of endearment were then read and presented to Dr Chalmers amidet hearty rounds of applause. Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers were then made the recipients of three beautiful pieces of Chinese embroidery and a silver vessel by the elders on behalf of the Churchas tokens of the love subsisting between them and the Church. Dr Chalmers then, in a humorous strain, humbly acknowledged, both for himself and for his wife. the kindness extended to them, and after briefly reviewing his past career in connection with the missionary field concluded by hearty good wishes for the prosperity of the Church. A short prayer together with some farewell hymns brought the meeting to a
